

PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date: 30 August 2026

Quantumezon Global Pvt. Ltd. ("Quantumezon", "we", "us" or "our") respects your privacy and is committed to protecting personal information shared through Quantumezon.com and our related digital platforms, products and services.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect information that you voluntarily provide, including your name, organisation, designation, email address, telephone number, professional interests, enquiries, applications, collaboration requests and other information submitted through forms, registrations, consultations, training programmes, events or business communications.

We may also collect limited technical information such as IP address, browser/device information, website usage data and cookies for security, analytics and improving user experience.

2. How We Use Information

We may use collected information to:

- Respond to enquiries, proposals and service requests;
- Provide consulting, R&D, training, technology and collaboration services;
- Manage memberships, events, forums and business relationships;
- Facilitate research, innovation and strategic partnerships;
- Communicate relevant business, technology, training or event information;
- Improve our website, products, platforms and services;
- Maintain cybersecurity, prevent misuse and comply with applicable laws.

3. Business & Innovation Information

Information shared with Quantumazon in connection with R&D; technology proposals, intellectual property, business plans, collaborations or consulting engagements will be handled with appropriate confidentiality measures. Specific confidentiality, ownership, IP and disclosure obligations may additionally be governed by applicable contracts, NDAs or MoUs.

4. Sharing of Information

We do not sell personal information. Information may be shared with authorised employees, professional advisers, technology/service providers, research or business partners, or government/regulatory authorities where reasonably necessary for providing services, fulfilling contractual obligations, protecting our rights, maintaining security or complying with applicable law.

5. Cookies & Analytics

Our website may use cookies and similar technologies to maintain functionality, understand website usage, improve performance and enhance user experience. You may manage cookie preferences through your browser settings, subject to the effect this may have on website functionality.

6. Data Security

We use reasonable administrative, technical and organisational safeguards intended to protect information against unauthorised access, alteration, disclosure, misuse or loss. However, no internet-based system can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

7. Third-Party Websites & Services

Our website may contain links to third-party websites, platforms or services. Their privacy practices are governed by their respective policies, and Quantumazon is not responsible for their privacy practices or content.

8. Data Retention

We retain information only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, contractual or business requirements, legal obligations, dispute resolution, security and legitimate organisational purposes.

9. Your Rights & Choices

Subject to applicable law, you may request access to, correction of, or deletion of personal information held by us, or raise concerns regarding its processing. We may require reasonable verification before acting on such requests.

10. Children & Minors

Our services and educational initiatives may involve students and young learners. Where applicable, participation, collection and processing of personal information relating to minors will be undertaken with appropriate parental/guardian consent and safeguards in accordance with applicable law.

11. Policy Updates

We may periodically update this Privacy Policy to reflect changes in our business, technology, services or applicable legal requirements. The updated version will be published on this website with the revised effective date.
